Dear Sir:

Introductory Comments

In conjunction with the Demand for International Preliminary Examination, Applicants had amended their claims to move the subject matter of Claims 2 and 3 into Claim 1 and renumber their other dependent claims accordingly. Regrettably, the Written Opinion of September 10, 2004 was based on the Claims as Filed. Therefore, Applicants again provide Replacement Pages 11 and 12, attached, and add to their comments.

With Respect to the References of the Search Report

All Claims are novel over WO 98/51475 because that publication does not teach or suggest impressions creating indicia that displays information.
